Injury Prevention Seminar a Success!

Thank you to Dr. Barb Deyell for all the work she did putting together a very informative presentation on how to keep our dogs fit and healthy. The seminar was well-attended and a big success!

Thanks to Aaron Felker...

For all his efforts serving as Club Secretary and Club Librarian. Aaron is going back to school out of state for the next few months. He and his family will return to Juneau this Fall. Good luck in your new adventure, Aaron! And, we hope to see you at Club events when you return!

New Secretary Appointed

The Board has appointed Barb Deyell to serve as Secretary for the remaining months of Aaron Felker's term. Thanks for volunteering, Barb!

Wags and Brags

Cayenne and I headed to the Belgian Sheepdog National Specialty. The event was held in Silverdale, Washington. The weather was superb the entire time we were there. On Tuesday, Cay received her Herding Instinct Certification. On Wednesday and Thursday we had a ball running courses in Novice Standard Preferred and Novice Jumpers Preferred. We didn't qualify but sure had a blast. Cay also was entered in Novice Obedience, where we did not qualify. I believe part of her problem was she seemed to be bothered by the spring pollen and her eyes were bothering her. However on Friday, Cay passed her Canine Good Citizen Test and her Future Messenger Dog test. On Saturday we were entered in the Breed ring under Judge Irene Bivin. Mrs Bivin gave Cayenne an Award of Merit out of a huge class of over 100 specials. Her new name is Select Am/Can CH U-CD Quantum's Hotn' Spicy Black Ice HIC, CGC, FMD. (Submitted by Susan Hoffman) 🐾

RALLY-O NEWS

- Don't forget the deadline for entries for the Rally Obedience trial is Wednesday, May 12! The trial is on the 15th and 16th. Both level 1 and level 2 are offered; level 1 in the mornings and level 2 in the afternoons. Visit ckcoj.org for entry forms or for more information, or contact Kathy Hocker at 586-6984.
- Instructors, assistants, and anyone else interested in positive training and teaching methods: mark your calendars for Wednesday, May 12, from 6-8 pm. CKCOJ is presenting a seminar on "teaching positive dog training." Instructor Lisa Wright, CPDT, of Edmonton, Canada will present techniques and tips for teaching dog classes: how to manage large groups, how to present material in a clear and informative way, how to deal with difficult dogs and humans, activities to make your class engaging and fun. Cost is $15 for anyone who has taught or assisted a CKCOJ class, $20 for all others. Location is TBA. If you have been teaching or assisting classes, or are just thinking about getting into the "business," this workshop should be VERY helpful. (Lisa may be needing demonstration dogs, but this is a class for humans).

Lisa is one of our Rally Obedience judges for the May 15/16 trial. She has been a professional dog trainer for over ten years and has taught hundreds of classes, from agility and Rally O to obedience, "fun and games," and aggression issues. Lisa has spoken and taught at US and Canadian Association of Pet Dog Trainers conferences, and at clubs and training centers throughout North America. She's an engaging speaker and an insightful trainer, and this session should be fun and informative. For more information, or to sign up, contact Kathy Hocker at 586-6984.
