SOPHIA YIN, DVM from DAVIS, CA ANIMAL BEHAVIOR SEMINAR

St. Brendan's Episcopal Church

Need help training your dog to not bark, jump on people, to not be fearful or aggressive, to handle vet visits more easily and other issues? Would you like a more scientific technique for modifying your dog's behavior? A face to face consultation with a trained animal behaviorist?

There's something for everyone! And two days of classes for the very low price of $55, thank to our generous benefactors, Wee Fishie Shoppe, Capital Chevrolet and Southeast Alaska Animal Medical Center. You can also opt to attend single classes for $10 each, if they are not already marked free.

Would you like a preview of Dr. Yin's work? Tune into KTOO's Juneau Afternoon, May 13, at 3:30pm.

Brought to you by Grateful Dogs of Juneau, Inc. and the Capital Kennel Club of Juneau. For more details, see the registration forms in this newsletter or go on-line to <http://www.ckcoj.org/sophia.htm>, or call Linda Shipman at 789-1245.

DOGS ON TRAILS UPDATE

Editorial Published in the Juneau Empire, May 1, 2005

Thumbs down to a plan to loosen the city's leash law in favor of "competent voice control." The Juneau Assembly on Monday night changed the city ordinance requiring dogs to be leashed on all city park land. Instead, dogs could be off-leash as long as their owners can control them with voice commands only. The city will hold a hearing in June to decide which trails dogs can be under only voice commands.

The problem with the voice-control plan is that it will be virtually impossible to enforce. It will make the job for Juneau's three enforcement officers - covering 80-plus trails - even more difficult. Some owners of rowdy dogs will say their pets follow voice commands and not leash them, leaving the elderly and children once again vulnerable to boisterous animals who inadvertently scratch them or knock them down. Enforcement officers often will have no way of knowing how well the dog follows commands at critical moments until the dog has actually hurt or harassed someone.

Dogs should not be leashed on all trails around town. But instituting the voice-control option means virtually throwing away the leash law on that particular trail. Either leash the dogs or don't, but don't create a wishy-washy guideline that's as good as no leash law at all.

Minutes

Minutes for the CKCOJ Board Meeting

Held April 21, 2005 6:30-8:30

At the Valley Library

- I. Called to order at 6:30 p.m. Board members present: Camille Stephens, Pres., Gina Vose, Vice Pres., Dee Ann Teseneer, Sec., Cheryl Nienhuis, Treas., Marty Messick, Member-at-large. Club members present: Susan Hoffman, Vicky McLaughlin, Jill Grose, Linda Shipman, Perry Shipman.
- II. Consent agenda
 - A. Approval of agenda. Approved unanimously.
 - B. Approval of new members. Holly Bierkortte, Joyce & Sam Smith (family), Marian Mann, Heather Bradner approved unanimously.
 - C. Approval of previous meeting minutes. Approved unanimously.
 - D. Acceptance of Treasurer's report. CGC expense corrected to "April test" and approved unanimously.

III. Action items

- A. Instructor training policy. Susan, Gina, and Marty to meet next week to make modifications. Applications are to be evaluated by the board in executive session. Suggestions to add definitions of 'instructor', 'co-instructor', and 'assistant'; that assistant be required to have the instructor's recommendation; and that a different amount of experience be required for an assistant to apply.

III. Discussion items

- A. Policy 011 – Liability waiver, need for revision. Nothing new to report.
- B. Scholarships for classes (V. McLaughlin). Vicky, Marty, and Perry will draft a proposal or series of options to present to the board.

IV. Routine updates

- A. Correspondence. No new correspondence.
- B. Web site move. Perry offered to host our web site to save the monthly fee we were paying Yahoo. He moved the site last weekend and has something more he wants to adjust. Motion to pay him a monthly fee (that would be less than the previous expense) (Marty/Gina) approved unanimously.
- C. Event Planning updates
 - 1. June Rally trial. Kathy Hocker to chair, Camille Stephens volunteered as secretary, Jill volunteered to assist.
 - 2. Combined event: Rally trial budget. (Marty/Gina) Approved unanimously.
 - 3. Seminar updates. Donations from the Wee Fishie Shoppe, Capital Chevrolet, and Southeast Alaska Veterinary Clinic are sponsoring three free classes during the Dr. Sophia Yin seminar. Donations of services from Temsco Helicopters, Inc., the Mount Roberts Tramway, and the McGregors will provide sightseeing for Dr. Yin.
 - 4. Dog Task Force. An ordinance will be introduced Monday by Parks & Recreation. Support through attendance or e-mail was requested of the board.
 - 5. Relay for Life July 16-17. This is a relay walk to raise money for the Cancer Society. Would the club want to enter a team? If not, individuals can support the Grateful Dogs team by walking with them.

- IV. Next meeting date: May 19, 6:30-8:30, Valley Library. The June meeting is scheduled for the 16th, but people will be traveling to Whitehorse, so the meeting was rescheduled for the Thursday before, the 9th.

- V. Adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Dee Ann Teseneer, Secretary

WHERE TO BURY A DOG

There are various places within which a dog may be buried. We are thinking now of a setter, whose coat was flame in the sunshine, and who, so far as we are aware, never entertained a mean or an unworthy thought. This setter is buried beneath a cherry tree, under four feet of garden loam, and at its proper season the cherry strews petals on the green lawn of his grave. Beneath a cherry tree, or an apple, or any flowering shrub of the garden, is an excellent place to bury a good dog. Beneath such trees, such shrubs, he slept in the drowsy summer, or gnawed at a flavourous bone, or lifted head to challenge some strange intruder. These are good places, in life or in death. Yet it is a small matter, and it touches sentiment more than anything else.

For if the dog be well remembered, if sometimes he leaps through your dreams actual as in life, eyes kindling, questing, asking, laughing, begging, it matters not at all where that dog sleeps at long and at last. On a hill where the wind is unrebuked and the trees are roaring, or beside a stream he knew in puppyhood, or somewhere in the flatness of a pasture land, where most exhilarating cattle graze. It is all one to the dog, and all one to you, and nothing is gained, and nothing lost -- if memory lives. But there is one best place to bury a dog. One place that is best of all.

If you bury him in this spot, the secret of which you must already have, he will come to you when you call -- come to you over the grim, dim frontiers of death, and down the well-remembered path, and to your side again. And though you call a dozen living dogs to heel they should not growl at him, nor resent his coming, for he is yours and he belongs there.

People may scoff at you, who see no lightest blade of grass bent by his footfall, who hear no whimper pitched too fine for mere audition, people who may never really have had a dog. Smile at them then, for you shall know something that is hidden from them, and which is well worth the knowing.

The one best place to bury a good dog is in the heart of his master.

CLUB MEETINGS

Regular Club Meetings are usually held the 3rd Thursday of each month. The location varies and is specified in the draft agenda published in the newsletter each month. All members are encouraged to attend. As members your vote is counted when the Board acts on a motion.

Proposed Policy on CKCOJ Seminars

The CKCoJ Board may approve a discount rate for class instructors, co-instructors and instructor's assistants for club hosted seminars and workshops that the club decides will be beneficial in their implementation, performance or general knowledge, that can be used to aid and/or employ in future club classes.

The discount rate will be subject to case-by-case review at the time the seminar proposal is introduced to the CKCoJ Board for approval. The CKCoJ Board will determine the amount of the discount given, at the time the event is approved.

To qualify for the discounted rate, class instructors, co-instructors and instructor's assistants will have to be a member in good standing and have been involved in teaching or assisting a class in the 12 months preceding the dates of the seminar.

Proposed CKCOJ Policy on Funding for Instructor, Co-Instructor, and Assistant Training (revision 2)

019. Funding for instructors, co-instructors, and assistants training: In order to encourage and facilitate continuing education for regular CKCOJ instructors, co-instructors, and assistants, the club will provide limited funding strictly for seminars and classes oriented towards instructors and improving their abilities.

1. Applications will be approved on a first-come, first serve basis.
2. Applications are to be submitted as soon as possible prior to the event. Applications for funding can be submitted up to 90 days after a seminar has taken place.
3. A maximum of $250 per seminar registration will be awarded.
4. The club may fund a maximum of $1000 per fiscal year.
5. Applications will not be approved if CKCOJ's bank account balance will fall below $7,500 as a result of funding a training request.
6. Adoption of this policy in no way guarantees or obligates funding of training requests, and the final approval of any training funding rests with the CKCOJ Board.
7. Applications will be scored out of a maximum of 100 points.

8. Only those applications earning 85 points or more will be approved.
9. Applications are to be submitted (electronically or paper) directly to the club president for distribution to board members at least ten (10) days before the next board meeting.
10. The application will be reviewed and scored at the next board meeting in an executive session.
11. If the club member requesting the funding is not present at the executive session, the club president will contact the applicant following the meeting with the board's decision.

Club members who are awarded CKCOJ funding using this program must commit to teaching a class in the same genre as the seminar within six (6) months of the funded seminar.

Definitions

Instructor: Organizes the class by contacting the Facilities Coordinator to obtain a facility to hold the class, contacts the publicity person to place the appropriate advertisements, and contacts the Webmaster to list the class on CKCOJ's web site. Acts as the contact for participants to call and/or email for class information. Develops the class curriculum, sets the class rules, and teaches the class. Collects the registration forms and money, and turns the money over to the Treasurer.

Co-Instructor: It takes two or more instructors to co-instruct, each sharing equally in the duties listed above under "instructor," with particular emphasis on the actual teaching of the class and the development and presentation of the curriculum.

Assistant: Works under the direction of the class instructor or co-instructors.

Criteria for funding:

1. 25 Points - Member in good standing. A member in good standing will be current with their membership dues and follow the club's code of ethics. A member in good standing will have a history of taking good care of club equipment, have all equipment returned on time, and have a history of keeping rented facilities clean. A member in good standing will have lived up to all previous agreements made with the club. Any failure of the above requirements will be given a 25-point deduction.
2. 35 Points - Previous instruction. 35 points will be awarded if the applicant has been the main instructor or co-instructor for at least one six-week class within the previous twelve (12) months that is in the same genre as the seminar. 35 points will be awarded if the applicant has been an assistant for at least three (3) six-week classes during the previous twelve (12) months, has a letter of recommendation from one or more instructors or co-instructors that s/he has worked for, and the classes that the assistant has worked in are the same genre as the seminar.

3. 30 Points - Summary of what the applicant anticipates learning and what will be brought back to the club.
 - A. 10 points - What is your interest in taking this course?
 - B. 10 points - How do you anticipate applying what you learned to your teaching?
 - C. 10 points - How do you see this seminar benefiting the club?
3. 5 Points - Copy of course description or flyer. Applicant will be awarded 5 points for including promotional material and class description with their application.
4. 5 Points - Commitment to present a synopsis within 60 days of the seminar. Applicant will be awarded points for committing to present a synopsis of what was learned at the seminar. This synopsis will be open to all club members and is not to be held in conjunction with the club's regular board meeting. The applicant is responsible for setting the date, time, and location for the synopsis, as well as providing the meeting information to the newsletter editor and club webmaster for publishing.
